Mar 11, 2019 Update

After the last 3 weekends I truly feel like a "retreataholic". We had our fiber retreat one weekend followed by 2 weekends of quilt retreat. At fiber retreat my daughter Donna taught me how to weave. I have the most beautiful scarf to prove I have a new hobby.

The projects that went with me to quilt retreat were all UFOs found when I was straightening up my sewing room. I finished up several of those and that felt so good! I even have a couple of them quilted and bound! Woohoo!! One of them was so much fun I decided it would be a fun class. It is the Dresden Neighborhood so if your interested let me know and we will get it scheduled.

Lately we have fallen in love with Laura Heines collage quilts. Most of her earlier patterns are rather large so created smaller replicas. Jackie did 3 models for the store and had so much fun she agreed to teach a class. Check out our class listings at the end of this newsletter for time and date.

Perseverance is another one of my finished retreat projects. This one is cut out using a mini tumbler ruler that is included in the pattern.

Ruth has been busy sewing up some spring table runners from the book Turnabout Patchwork

Mar 11, 2019 Update

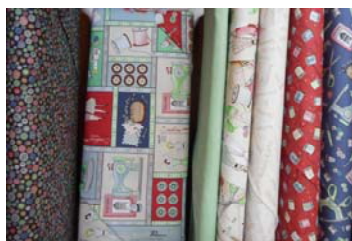

We have a good selection of easy to make quick quilt patterns that are sewn from 3 one yard cuts of fabric. Recently we received a new book- Fast and Fun 3 Yard Quilts that has a great assortment of patterns in it. We have bundled up some new prepackaged kits if you have a tough time deciding which fabrics to choose.

While I was gone several new lines of fabric came in

Fusion from Benartex

Betterstitch from Blank

Soho from Northcott

We just got in a huge new assortment of hand dyed yarns from one of our local hand dyers- Daisy Hill. I've already grabbed up one of her scrumptious new colors for a pair of socks.

While at fiber retreat I knitted a mitten with Universal Yarns Tapestry. It creates this wonderful self patterning effect as you work with it. We have lots of yummy colors to choose from.

Check out our new class lists on the next 2 pages. Happy stitching ~Lisa
