Sep 26, 2018 Update

Recently I got this pattern- Teen Spirit and thought what a great quilt to make in school colors. We chose to have ours made to represent WSU. Can't you just see this made up to symbolize your favorite school? All it takes is an assortment of fat quarters.

This yummy bolt of fabric came in and we paired it with several bolts of the new Moda Grunge stars. Sharon made the Three in one Betsy bag with it and it came out beautifully.

How about some fun lime colored sheep. I've made a very simple tote bag and I LOVE IT!

This quilt looks SO complicated, but it's one of the easiest and most fun quilts I've ever made. It's all sewn with 2 different Maywood pre-printed flannels and a simple red border. We will have kits available.

Sep 26, 2018 Update

Along with getting ready for quilt hop we are also participating in the Central Kansas Yarn Hop. We will be featuring the Berroco Vintage yarn. We just got in a whole bunch of new colors. This yarn is great because it is machine washable and dryable. The Yarn Hop is October 16-20, 2018 and there are 7 shops participating. Stop by for more information.

I love this Symmetry yarn. It knitted up beautifully into this Irish Mesh cowl.

These beautiful new sock yarns are from England made by West Yorkshire Spinners. You really have to see them in person to appreciate how gorgeous they are.

This sweet little panel is from Moda by American Jane. By just adding a simple border you can have a quick little baby quilt.

Don't forget to grab one of these preprinted panels to whip up a cute little candy bag for your favorite little trick or treater.

Panel perfection is a new pattern from Wing and a Prayer design. It's a great way to use up some of those panels you have bought and don't know what to do with. We have the butterfly fabric that this pattern is made from and I can't wait to get one stitched up.

Deb was feeling very autumnish and designed this new fall table runner with a gourd, pumpkin and leaves. I love it!

I hope you all get a chance to stop by the store to check out all the new products we have on display. There are more than I could get into this newsletter-including the new Lush block of the month. Stop by and say hi. And check out the class list for the rest of the year.

Happy Stitching ~Lisa
